

BESPOKE LINED Flat Caps

The Garforth

In the Tweed is a company founded by Lottie Coughtrie (wife of James Coughtrie (2001) and daughter in law to Douglas Coughtrie (1974) both old Lorettonian's) with the aim of creating bespoke lined flat caps with colours that represent the individual.

I realised that many Tweed caps go missing because they lack individuality. In order to solve this problem, I started In The Tweed. In The Tweed is offering two styles of cap, lined with the Old Lorettonian colours, with £5 from each sale going towards the Lorettonian society to support it's on going activities.

The Helmsley is priced at £65 per cap and The Garforth is priced at £60 per cap.
